

On Calvary's Cross, Behold the One

(Hamburg. L. M.)

Adpt. by L. Mason

1. On Cal-v'ry's cross, be - hold the One Who is God's Fel-low and His Son,
2. He "knew no sin," yet He must there God's righteous, ho-ly judg-ment bear,
3. He's ris - en now, the work is done, And God has glo-ri - fied His Son;
4. Then to the Lord for ref-u-ge fly, For why, poor sin-ner, wilt thou die?

Ac-curs-ed there up - on the tree, He died to set the guilt-y free.
 Must suf-fer in our guilt-y stead, And numbered be a - mong the dead.
 Has set Him in the high-est place, The source of rich, un-bound-ed grace.
 Why wilt thou still re - fuse His call? Who seeks to save, who died for all.
