

God Loved the World So Tenderly

(C. M. with Refrain)

Fanny J. Crosby

William J. Kirkpatrick

SOLO, ad lib.

1. God loved the world so ten-der - ly, His on - ly Son He gave,
 2. Oh, love that on - ly God can feel, And on - ly He can show!
 3. Why per-ish, then, ye care-less ones? Why slight the gracious call?
 4. O Sav-iour, melt these hearts of theirs, And bring them to be - lieve

That all who on His name be - lieve, Its won-drous pow'r will save.
 Its height and depth, its length and breadth, Nor heaven nor earth can know!
 Why turn from Him whose words pro - claim E - ter - nal life to all?
 That who - so - ev - er comes to Thee Shall end - less life re - ceive.

REFRAIN

For God so loved the world that He gave His on - ly Son,

That who - so - ev - er be - lieveth in Him Should not per-ish, should not per-ish; That who - so - ev - er be - lieveth in Him

God Loved the World So Tenderly

Should not per-ish, but have ev-er-last-ing life.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "God Loved the World So Tenderly". It consists of two staves, a treble staff and a bass staff, both in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps: F# and C#). The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the treble staff. The music is in 4/4 time. The first staff has a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps. The second staff has a bass clef and the same key signature. The lyrics are: "Should not per-ish, but have ev-er-last-ing life." The music ends with a double bar line.
