

Passing Onward, Quickly Passing

(Zion. 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.)

Dr. T. Hastings

1. Pass-ing on-ward, quick-ly pass-ing, Yes, but whith-er, whith-er bound?
 2. Pass-ing on-ward, quick-ly pass-ing, Naught the wheels of time can stay;
 3. Pass-ing on-ward, quick-ly pass-ing, Man-y on the down-ward road;
 4. Pass-ing on-ward, quick-ly pass-ing, Time its course will quick-ly run;

Is it to the man-y man-sions Where e-ter-nal rest is found?
 Sweet tho't that some are go-ing To the realms of per-fect day;
 Care-less of their souls im-mor-tal, Heed-ing not the call of God,
 Still we hear the fond en-treat-y Of the ev-er-gra-cious One-

Pass-ing on-ward- Yes, but whith-er, whith-er bound?
 Pass-ing on-ward- Christ their lead-er, Christ their way.
 Pass-ing on-ward- Tramp-ling on the Sav-iour's blood.
 "Come and wel-come, 'Tis by Me that life is won."

Pass-ing on-ward- Yes, but whith-er, whith-er bound?
 Pass-ing on-ward- Christ their lead-er, Christ their way.
 Pass-ing on-ward- Tramp-ling on the Sav-iour's blood.
 "Come and wel-come, 'Tis by Me that life is won."
