

Passing Onward, Quickly Passing

(Zion. 8. 7. 8. 7. 4. 7.)

Dr. T. Hastings

1. Pass-ing on - ward, quick-ly pass - ing, Yes, but whith - er, whith - er bound?
 2. Pass-ing on - ward, quick-ly pass - ing, Naught the wheels of time can stay;
 3. Pass-ing on - ward, quick-ly pass - ing, Man - y on the down-ward road;
 4. Pass-ing on - ward, quick-ly pass - ing, Time its course will quick - ly run;

Is it to the man - y man-sions Where e - ter - nal rest is found?
 Sweet the thought that some are go - ing To the realms of per - fect day;
 Care-less of their souls im-mor - tal, Heed-ing not the call of God,
 Still we hear the fond entreat - y Of the ev - er-gra - cious One -

Pass - ing on - ward - Yes, but whith - er, whith - er bound?
 Pass - ing on - ward - Christ their lead - er, Christ their way.
 Pass - ing on - ward - Tramp - ling on the Sav - iour's blood.
 "Come and wel - come, 'Tis by Me that life is won."

Pass - ing on - ward - Yes, but whith - er, whith - er bound?
 Pass - ing on - ward - Christ their lead - er, Christ their way.
 Pass - ing on - ward - Tramp - ling on the Sav - iour's blood.
 "Come and wel - come, 'Tis by Me that life is won."