

Vain Is The Thought of Man

(Moreland. S. M.)

Mary Bowley

1. Vain is the tho't of man To mer-it heav'n by prayer;
 2. Could cease-less prayers as - cend, Could tears for - ev - er flow,
 3. But faith's one look at Christ Ex - pir-ing on the tree—
 4. None can with - out the blood Of Je-sus be for - giv'n;

'Tis on - ly Je - sus' pre-cious blood Can give ad - mis - sion there.
 The soul were still un - blest, un-saved, And peace could nev - er know.
 One heart-be - liev - ing glance at Him Can set the sin - ner free.
 'Tis rest-ing on the blood a - lone That fits the soul for heav'n.
