

1. Christ is the on - ly Sav - iour might - y to save,
 2. Christ in that hour of dark - ness, lost ones to save,
 3. Oh, what a might - y Sav - iour, Je - sus who died!
 4. O bless - ed ris - en Sav - iour, liv - ing to - day!

He who suf - fered once for sins, and sank neath the wave;
 Braved Him - self the o - cean depths, and bat - tled the wave;
 Strong e - nough to bear His own above the an - gry tide;
 Liv - ing, too, to guide Thine own thro' all the storm - y way;

Sing how the wrath of God on Cal - v'ry's cross He bore;
 Though all Je - ho - vah's bil - lows rolled o'er His head,
 Not e'en the feeb - lest saint will Christ ev - er fail,
 None have the power to pluck Thy saints from Thine hand,

How by death He con - quered death and lives ev - er - more.
 Son of Man and Son of God, He rose from the dead.
 Nev - er will the gates of hell a - gainst Him pre - vail.
 Thou wilt safely bring Thine own home to the bet - ter land.

Christ Is the Only Saviour

REFRAIN

Christ is the Sav - iour, He nev - er will fail; All hope to save one-self could noth - ing avail; Man is a to - tal wreck, can nev - er reach the shore.

All who trust in Je - sus Christ are saved ev - ermore.
