5 Indignant Justice stood in view,
 To Sinai's fiery mount I flew;
 But Justice cried with frowning face,
 "This mountain is no hiding place."

6 On Jesus, God's just vengeance fell,
 Which would have sunk a world to hell;
 He bore it for a sinful race,
 And thus became their Hiding Place.

7 Should sevenfold storms of thunder roll,
 And shake this globe from pole to pole,
 No thunderbolt shall daunt my face,
 For Jesus is my Hiding Place.

8 A few more rolling suns at most,
 Shall land me on fair Canaan's coast,
 Where I shall sing the song of grace,
 And see my glorious Hiding Place.
