The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes. The lower staff is in bass clef with the same key signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment of chords and single notes.

white as snow? Are you washed in the blood of the Lamb?

The second system of music also consists of two staves in the same key signature and clefs as the first system. The melody in the upper staff continues with quarter and eighth notes. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.
