

1. If I gained the world but lost the Sav - iour, Were my
 2. Had I wealth and love in full - est meas - ure, With a
 3. Oh, what emp - ti - ness— without the Sav - iour Mid the
 4. Oh, the joy of hav - ing all in Je - sus! What a life worth liv - ing for a day? Could my yearning heart find rest and name renowned both far and near, Yet no hope be - yond, no har - bor sins and sor - rows here be - low! And e - ter - ni - ty, how dark with - balm the bro - ken heart to heal! Ne'er a sin so great, but He can

com - fort In the things that soon must pass a - way?
 wait - ing, Where my storm-tossed ves - sel I could steer;
 out Him— On - ly night and tears and end - less woe!
 cleanse it, Not a sor - row that He does not feel!

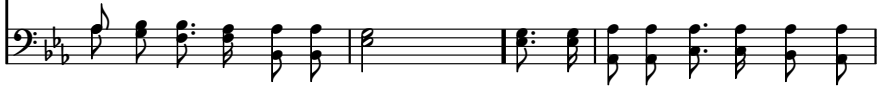

If I gained the world, but lost the Sav - iour, Would my
 If I gained the world, but lost the Sav - iour, Who en -
 What though I might live without the Sav - iour, When I
 If I have but Je - sus, on - ly Je - sus, Noth - ing

If I Gained the World

gain be worth the toil and strife?
dured the cross and died for me,
come to die, how would it be?
else in all the world be - side—

Are all earth-ly treas-ures worth com-
Could then all the world af - ford a Oh, to face the val-ley's gloom with-Oh, then ev-ery-thing is mine in par - ing With the gift of God, e - ter - nal life?

ref - uge Whith - er in my an - guish I might flee?
out Him! And with - out Him for e - ter - ni - ty!
Je - sus; For my needs and more He will pro - vide.

