

128 Though All the Beasts That Live and Feed

(Meribah. 8. 8. 6. D.)

T. Kelly

Dr. Lowell Mason

1. Though all the beasts that live and feed Up - on a thou-sand hills should
2. "A bet - ter sac - ri - fice" than these It needs the conscience to ap -
3. His who could say, Hi, - self the Son, "My Fa - ther and My - self are bleed— Tho' all their blood should flow, The sac - ri - fice would be in pease Or sat - is - fy the Lord: No blood hath vir - tue to a - one," Who made the world a - round; His, who Je - ho - vah's Fel - low vain, The stain of sin would still re - main: Sin is not cancelled so.

tone For man's offence, but His a - lone Whose tit - le is "The Word."
stood, And claim'd e - qual - i - ty with God, Whose glo - ry knows no bounds.

4 Jesus the Christ, on earth His name,
He came— in love to sinners came—
And bowed His head and died;
A full atonement now is made,
The ransom, by His death, is paid,
And Justice satisfied.

5 That sinners might draw near to Him,
God planned this great, this gracious scheme,
And found the ransom too:
Let all His saints their voices raise,
And sing the great Redeemer's praise
While endless ages flow.