

(Diademata. S. M. with Refrain)

James Montgomery

George J. Elvey

1. The Lord Himself shall come And shout a quick-ening word:
 2. Then as we up - ward fly, The res - ur - rec - tion word
 3. There with un-wear - ied gaze Our eyes on Him we'll rest,
 4. "Know-ing as we are known," How shall we love that word;

Thou - sands shall an - swer from the tomb: "For - ev - er with the Lord."
 Shall be our shout of vic - to - ry, "For - ev - er with the Lord."
 And sat - is - fy with end - less praise A heart su - pre - m - e - ly blest.
 How oft re - peat be - fore the throne, "For - ev - er with the Lord."

REFRAIN

That res - ur - rec - tion word, That shout of vic - to - ry—

Once more: "Forev - er with the Lord." A - men, so let it be.
