

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

(Rhineland. 8. 7. 8. 7.)

Mary Bowley

Wilhelm Brockhaus

The musical score is written in 3/2 time. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The melody is primarily in the upper staff, with some notes in the lower staff. The lyrics are printed below the upper staff.

1. Man - y sons to glo - ry bring-ing, God sets forth His heaven-ly name;
 2. God, who gave the blood to screen us, God looks down in per - fect love;
 3. Tho' the rest-less foe ac - cus - es, Sins re - count-ing like a flood,
 4. In the ref - uge God pro - vid - ed, Tho' the world's de - struc-tion lowers,
 5. And, ere long, when come to glo - ry, We shall sing a well-known strain,

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Many Sons to Glory Bringing'. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The treble staff contains the melody, which begins with a G4 note, followed by a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note B4. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment, starting with a G2 note and a half note G2, followed by a half note G2 and a half note G2. The lyrics are written in the center, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: 'On we march, in chorus sing-ing, "Wor - thy the as - cend - ed Lamb!" Clouds may seem to pass be-tween us, There's no change in Him a - bove. Ev - 'ry charge our God re - fus - es: Christ has answered with His blood. We are safe— to Christ con - fid - ed, Ev - er - last - ing life is ours. This— the nev - er - tir - ing sto - ry— "Wor - thy is the Lamb once slain!"'
