

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

(Rhineland. 8. 7. 8. 7.)

Mary Bowley

German

The musical score is written in 3/4 time. The treble clef staff contains the melody, and the bass clef staff contains the accompaniment. The melody consists of a series of chords and single notes, with a final cadence. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff.

1. Man - y sons to glo - ry bring-ing, God sets forth His heaven-ly name;
 2. God, who gave the blood to screen us, God looks down in per - fect love;
 3. Tho' the rest-less foe ac - cus - es, Sins re - count-ing like a flood,
 4. In the ref - uge God pro - vid - ed, Tho' the world's de - struc-tion lowers,
 4. And, ere long, when come to glo - ry, We shall sing a well-known strain,

Many Sons to Glory Bringing

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Many Sons to Glory Bringing'. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The treble staff contains the melody, which begins with a G4 note, followed by a half note G4, a quarter note A4, and a quarter note B4. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment, starting with a G3 note and a half note G3, followed by a quarter note A3 and a quarter note B3. The lyrics are written in the center, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: 'On we march, in chorus sing-ing, "Wor - thy the as - cend - ed Lamb!" Clouds may seem to pass be-tween us, There's no change in Him a - bove. Ev - 'ry charge our God re - fus - es: Christ has answered with His blood. We are safe - to Christ con - fid - ed, Ev - er - last - ing life is ours. This - the nev - er - tir - ing sto - ry - "Wor - thy is the Lamb once slain!"' The score ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
