

(Faithfulness. 8. 8. 8. D.)

J. N. Darby

1. This world is a wil - der - ness wide! We have noth - ing to
 2. There is but that one in the waste, Which His foot - steps have
 3. And with Him shall our rest be on high, When in ho - li - ness
 4. And, Sav - iour, 'tis Thee from on high We a - wait till the seek or to choose; We've no tho't in the waste to a - bid; We have marked as His own, And we fol - low in dil - i - gent haste To the bright we sit down, In the joy of His love ev - er nigh, In the time Thou shalt come, To take those Thou hast led by Thine eye To Thy-naught to re - gret, nor to lose. The Lord is Him - self gone be - fore; seats where He's put on His crown. For the path where our Sav - iour is gone peace that His presence shall crown. 'Tis the treas - ure we've found in His love self in Thy heav - en - ly home. Till then 'tis the path Thou hast trod,

He has marked out the path that we tread; It's as sure as the Has led up to His Fa - ther and God, To the place where He's That has made us now pil - grims be - low, And 'tis there, when we Our de - light and our com - fort shall be; We're con - tent with Thy

This World Is a Wilderness Wide!

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "This World Is a Wilderness Wide!". It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is written in the bass clef. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The score ends with a double bar line.

love we a - dore, We have noth - ing to fear, nor to dread.
now on the throne, And His strength shall be ours on the road.
reach Him a - bove, As we're known, all His ful - ness we'll know.
staff and Thy rod, Till with Thee all Thy glo - ry we see.