

365 We Are Glad We Ever Heard the Blessed News

(Marching On. P. M. with Refrain)

William B. Bradbury

1. We are glad we ev - er heard the bless - ed news, How that
2. Oh! what love of God to send Him from on high, Oh! what
3. But if we the full - ness of that love would know, And to

Je - sus died to pay our might - y dues, And that God has said He love of Je - sus thus to bleed and die, Oh! what love we owe for that bright home of peace and joy would go, We must know our sins for - nev - er will re - fuse Those who trust in Je - sus' blood.

par - don brought so nigh, Through faith in Je - sus' blood!
given while here be - low, Through faith in Je - sus' blood.

Fine

We Are Glad We Ever Heard the Blessed News

news! joy - ful news Sound the joy - ful ti - dings forth! D. C.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "We Are Glad We Ever Heard the Blessed News". It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff on top and a bass clef staff on the bottom. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass line is in the bass staff. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff, with "news!" under the first measure, "joy - ful news" under the second measure, and "Sound the joy - ful ti - dings forth!" under the remaining three measures. The piece concludes with a double bar line and the initials "D. C." (Da Capo).
