love. I, tho' so un - wor - thy,
is His love; I tho' un - wor - thy, Still am His child

The first system of musical notation for 'Wide as the Ocean' consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff begins with a melodic line in G major (one flat) with lyrics 'love. I, tho' so un - wor - thy,'. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with lyrics 'is His love; I tho' un - wor - thy, Still am His child'. The music is in 4/4 time and features a simple, hymn-like melody.

Still am a child of His care,
His care, For His Word teach-es me

The second system of musical notation continues the melody. The treble staff has lyrics 'Still am a child of His care,' and 'His care, For His Word teach-es me'. The bass staff continues the accompaniment. The melody features a prominent chordal texture in the treble staff.

That His love reach - es me Ev - 'ry - where.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The treble staff has lyrics 'That His love reach - es me Ev - 'ry - where.' and ends with a final chord. The bass staff continues the accompaniment.

The Saviour's Path and Ours

(This hymn may be sung to the same tune as the preceding, using the same refrain.)

- 1 He left His bright home, His glorious throne,
To die upon Calvary's tree;
His blood there was spilt, to cleanse me from guilt,
He died — He lives for me.
- 2 The path is marked out, till called by the shout,
To meet with my Lord in the air.
The Spirit's the power, to walk till that hour,
The object of God's care.
