The first system of musical notation for 'Wide as the Ocean'. It consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The treble staff has a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and a common time signature. The melody is written in a simple, hymn-like style. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

Is my Sav - iour's love. I, tho' so un - is His love; I tho' un - wor - thy,

The second system of musical notation. It continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. The lyrics are split across two lines of music.

wor - thy, Still am a child of His care,
Still am His child His care,

The third system of musical notation. The melody continues with a long note on 'care,' in the final measure. The bass staff accompaniment remains consistent.

For His Word teaches me That His love reaches me Ev - 'ry - where.

The fourth and final system of musical notation for this hymn. It concludes with a double bar line. The melody and accompaniment end on a sustained chord.

The Saviour's Path and Ours

(This hymn may be sung to the same tune as the preceding, using the same refrain.)

- 1 He left His bright home, His glorious throne,
To die upon Calvary's tree;
His blood there was spilt, to cleanse me from guilt,
He died—He lives for me.
- 2 The path is marked out, till called by the shout,
To meet with my Lord in the air.
The Spirit's the power, to walk till that hour,
The object of God's care.
