

J. T. Armet (Arr.)

(None But Christ Can Satisfy. C. M. with Refrain)

J. McGranahan

1. Oh, come to Je - sus, sin - ner, come, And have thy sins for - giv'n.
 2. A lov - ing Sav - iour He, whose blood A - vails to cleanse from sin.
 3. Come as thou art, de - filed, un - done; And wait not to im - prove,

A mansion bright, a robe of white He of - fers thee in heaven.
 He died the might-y debt to pay And give thee peace with - in.
 His blood a - lone, can e'er a - tone For sin, thy guilt re - move.

REFRAIN

Oh, come to Je - sus, sin - ner, come! Come, while He of - fers thee

His won - drous love, a home above For all e - ter - ni - ty.

4 The feast is spread; e'en while we plead,
 God's house is filling fast.
 Do not delay, soon mercy's day
 Forever will be past.

5 The Spirit and the bride say, "Come";
 O sinner, 'tis for thee —
 The Saviour's love, a home above
 For all eternity.