

O What a Gift the Father Gave

Sing to above tune and refrain

1 O what a gift the Father gave
When He bestowed His Son!
To save poor ruined, guilty man,
By sin defiled, undone.

2 For I was lost and vile indeed!
To sin a willing prey;
Till God in mercy interposed
And turned my night to day.

3 Now I can call the Saviour mine,
Though all unworthy still;
I'm sheltered by His precious blood,
Beyond the reach of ill.

4 Come all who trust in Jesus now,
And tell your joys abroad;
Let thankful hymns of praise ascend,
For Christ, the gift of God.
