

He Knew No Sin, That Holy One

(Sawley. C. M.)

J. J. Walch

1. He knew no sin, that Ho - ly One, Yet was made sin for us,
 2. For - sa - ken whol - ly on the tree, Un - heard His bit - ter cry,
 3. Bloodsprinkled is the mer - cy - seat, The throne is sat - is - fied;
 4. In righteous - ness God now can bless All who His Word be - lieve,
 5. But soon will close that o - pen door, Be hushed that gra - cious voice,

God gave His well - be - lov - ed Son To die for sin - ners thus.
 That we from judg - ment might be free, The right - eous One must die.
 Re - demp - tion's work is all com - plete, And Christ is glo - ri - fied.
 And life e - ter - nal they pos - sess Who Christ the Son re - ceive.
 Glad ti - dings shall be heard no more; Now make thy fi - nal choice.
