

Vain Is the Thought of Man

Mary Bowley

(Moreland. S. M.)

1. Vain is the thought of man To mer - it heaven by prayer;
 2. Could cease-less prayers as - cend, Could tears for - ev - er flow;
 3. But faith's one look at Christ Ex - pir - ing on the tree—
 4. None can with - out the blood Of Je - sus be for - giv'n;

'Tis on - ly Je - sus' pre-cious blood Can give ad - mis - sion there.
 The soul were still un - blest, un-saved, And peace could nev - er know.
 One heart-be - liev - ing glance at Him Can set the sin - ner free.
 'Tis rest - ing on the blood a - lone That fits the soul for heaven.
