

1. Just on the thresh-old! Oh, why not come in, Leav-ing the maz-es of dark-ness and
 2. Just on the thresh-old, and joy near at hand; Yon-der's the gleam of Im-man - u - el's
 3. Just on the threshold— oh, make now thy choice; Come with the servants of Christ, and resin? Forward the light, and the glo - ry di-vine; Backward the dangers, and woes that were land! Ref-uge and rest are now of-fered to thee: Sin or sal - vation— oh, which shall it joice! Je - sus is call-ing, oh, turn not a-side! Come! 'tis the voice of the Spir - it and thine.

REFRAIN

 be? Just on the threshold— and Christ calls to thee! Come! with the pardoned for - ev - er to be!
 bride!

Just on the threshold— why lin-ger so long? Sing, with the ransomed, e - ter-ni - ty's song!

